Badminton, Pickleball and Floor Curling Primary School Competitions
Terms 2 and 3, 2022

Term 2 – Wednesday May 18th – June 22nd, 2022

Term 3 – Wednesday July 20th – August 24th, 2022

Held each year in school Terms 2 & 3 the BBA Primary Schools Competition gives students the opportunity to participate in an after-school badminton, pickleball or floor curling competition. The competition runs from 4.15pm to 5.30pm on Wednesday afternoons during school terms.

- Badminton and Pickleball teams consist of 4 players with Floor Curling teams consisting of 2 players. Teams can include both boys and girls.
- BBA will endeavour to grade teams into sections dependant on the number of entries.
- All sections will be round robin competition.
- Schools may enter as many teams as they wish.
- Each player will play 3 games per night and different players may play in your team each week. Players can enter one sport only.
- Each team must have an umpire/supervisor (parent or teacher). We can provide assistance with scoring for those who need it.
- The cost will be $3 per player for all 3 sports.
- All equipment supplied.
- The 1st & 2nd placed teams will be presented with medallions on the last night of the competition.

If your school is interested in participating, please fill in the attached entry form and email it to Ballarat Badminton Association. Any further information can be obtained from Rhonda Cator or Sandra David at the Badminton Stadium on 53394601.

Wednesday 11th May will be a training session for players to learn the rules of their chosen sport. Schools wishing to book extra training sessions in the lead up to the competitions can do so by contacting the stadium on 53394601 or ballbadminton@hotmail.net.au
