Primary School Competitions Terms 2 and 3, 2017

Term 2 – Wednesday May 10th – June 28th, 2017

Term 3 – Wednesday July 26th – September 13th, 2017

Held each year in school Terms 2 & 3 the BBA Primary Schools Competition gives students the opportunity to participate in an after school badminton competition. The competition runs from 4.15pm to 5.30pm on Wednesday afternoons during school terms.

- Teams consist of 4 players. Teams of 4 should include both boys and girls
- BBA will endeavour to grade teams into 3 or 4 sections dependant on the number of entries
- All sections will be round robin
- Schools may enter as many teams as they wish
- Each player will play 3 games per night and different players may play in your team each week
- Each team must have an umpire/supervisor (parent or teacher). We can provide assistance with scoring for those who need it
- The cost will be $12 per team per day regardless of number of players
- Plastic shuttles and score sheets will be supplied and rackets are available free of charge if required
- The 1st & 2nd placed teams will be presented with medallions on the last night of the competition.

If your school is interested in participating please fill in the attached entry form and mail, fax or email it to Ballarat Badminton Association. Any further information can be obtained from Rhonda Cator or Sandra David at the Badminton Stadium on 53394601.

Schools wishing to book training sessions in the lead up to the competitions can do so by contacting the stadium.
